was paid in full. I sent the last bill in before the due date. I didn't receive a final bill or anything telling me the meter had been disconnected.

When I called the water District, I was told there wasn't such an account number. I have requested several times by certified mail why this had happened.
Wherefore, complainant asks I need this water meter of McCreary. The shelter is located upon my land. The meter which is called T1 is close to where the animals will be housed for winter. I did not request this to be disconnected.
